Murdoch Hill 2018 'The Tilbury' Chardonnay

Winemaker: Michael Downer

Grape(s): Chardonnay

GI: Adelaide Hills (Mount Lofty Ranges, South Australia)

Site(s): A selection of vineyards in Piccadilly Valley, Lobethal District & Kenton Valley

Vintage notes: The growing season experienced variable weather with good subsoil moisture from late winter rains. Summer experienced some warm to hot periods, this was always followed with cooler condition to keep healthy canopies and protect the bunches. During veraison this trend continued, leading to excellent flavor development with picking decisions critical for capturing natural acidity with depth of fruit.

Vineyard notes: From a selection of vineyards, predominately from a high-altitude vineyard in the Piccadilly Valley, the remaining fruit is sourced from the Lobethal District and Kenton Valley. These are mature vines with a mix of clones, Bernard C76, C95 & C96 with I10VI, G9V7 and Mendoza clones. The elevation (450-550m) in this cool climate is coupled with a range of aspects for naturally high acidity.

Winemaking: The hand-picked grapes were part whole berry and whole bunch pressed. Fermentation in older French oak. Partial malolactic fermentation was allowed with a small amount of lees stirring to add complexity and depth whilst being careful to keep the wine focused on the vineyards and not the winemaking. Elevage in a mixture of old and new French oak in varying formats.

Closure: Stelvin

ABV: 13%

LEGEND tasting notes: Lifted aromatics of desert lime (a pithy native citrus), white flowers, and flinty reduction. The palate adds stuffing and body to these aromatics, and fills out with flavors of toasted bunya bunya nut (a native pine nut), green apple, and white peach. Oak gives scope and reduction without contributing much in the way of flavor. Vibrant acid, lively and complex.

Label: Each single vineyard wine is named after a horse-drawn carriage (Michael's grandfather was an avid collector). The Tilbury takes its name from an open carriage with large wheels, making it a light, fast and dangerous carriage with an elaborate suspension system for a softer ride.

Points: 95 Points (Suckling)
